

BURLEY TOBACCO POOL OF 1910 IS DECLARED OFF BY BOARD

Hurried Meeting of Society Representatives Decides That This Year's Pool Is a Failure.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 17.—By a resolution adopted by a unanimous vote at 11:54 o'clock Saturday night, the District Board of the Burley Tobacco Society officially declared off the pool of the 1910 crop. The pool will have a technical existence only until the individual growers themselves have acquiesced in the action. This acquiescence will probably have effect in the sale of a vast quantity of tobacco Monday, as the growers are released of all obligation.

Passing with the Burley pool also is the independent pool launched by Georgetown last Wednesday. By a declaration sent to the meeting here, the founders of the new movement concur in the course forced upon the Burley Board.

In a statement prefacing the resolution, President LeBus outlined what may be the policy of the Burley Tobacco Society. He was vociferously applauded when he referred to a possible cut-out of the 1911 crop and said that those in the 1909 pool should demand a fair price for the 1909 crop even if they had to hold it.

The only speech of a session continuing until mid-night was delivered by Col. Joel B. Fort. He made a very eloquent presentation of the position of the growers, saying that they had been forced to retreat, but that they would never consider surrender.

The call for the extraordinary session was unexpected. In explanation of the call, President LeBus stated that the flooding of the country by trust buyers and their success, had decided several members of the Executive Committee Friday that to release those in the pool was the only just course. It was agreed to wait until Saturday for further developments. Reports continued discouraging, and the Executive Committee resolved to call the District Board together.

Members were notified by wire, and over thirty members reached Lexington by evening trains.

Following is the resolution adopted: "Moved that we approve of the action of the President in calling the District Board in extraordinary session. "Since it has been reported to us that large numbers of tobacco growers outside of the pool, especially in the so-called Blue Grass counties, are selling their 1910 tobacco, and that the buyers are paying from 12 cents per pound up without even seeing the crops, and paying no attention whatever to the quality, we feel it our duty as representatives of the tobacco poolers of the 1910 crop to now recommend the declaring of the said 1910 pool off so far as our authority extends.

"We are of the opinion that it would be unjust to those who have been so loyal for the past four years and who by their sacrifice and allegiance have made the tobacco market to hold them while the opposition takes advantage of the situation.

"Our judgment in this matter is based upon existing conditions and as representatives of the people, we feel it our imperative duty to use whatever power we possess to relieve our loyal friends of any obligation incurred by signing the 1910 pooling contracts."

Before action was taken on the resolution, reports were heard from all county chairmen. Without exception they took the view that the outlook was hopeless as a result of the influx of trust buyers, who, they reported, were flooding the country like a tidal wave, buying crops without even inspecting the same. These excursions had demoralized the pooling rallies called for Saturday.

President LeBus acknowledged the necessity of retreat with characteristic gameness, and looked to the future with uncompromising resolution. "We are forced to back track, but only to get a stronger foothold," he declared. "Tonight the patriot gets on equal terms with the dumper. He has a like opportunity to dispose of the 1910 crop to the best advantage. I hope that you will demand a fair price for your 1909 tobacco, and if necessary, hold it indefinitely. If it becomes imperative, the 1911 crop can be cut out from border to border."

BEATTYVILLE BANK CLOSES ITS DOORS

Directors Have Been Meeting Daily But Were Unable to Prevent the Failure.

BEATTYVILLE, Ky., Oct. 17.—The National Bank of Beattyville closed its doors Saturday afternoon. National Bank Examiner-at-large Percy H. Johnston is in charge of the institution. The failure was caused by the bank's inability to pay several checks for large amounts that were presented at the counter.

The National Bank of Beattyville succeeded the Bank of Beattyville in 1905, and at the last published report, September 1, had a capital of $25,000 and a surplus fund of $3,000 and deposits aggregating $60,000. Examiner Johnston has been in Beattyville all of this week. The directors have been meeting daily, but were unable to prevent the failure. At this time it is not known just what the final outcome will be.

INSTANTLY KILLED ON EXCURSION TRAIN

John Doty Shoots Ed. Bryant as Result of Trivial Quarrel on Board Cincinnati Special.

John Doty shot and instantly killed Ed. Bryant just as the excursion train from Cincinnati left Paris Sunday night. The men had been engaged in a quarrel and were drinking on their way from Cincinnati. It is stated by witnesses that Bryant had severely cut Doty about the face and that he shot Bryant in self defense. The conductor on the train caught Doty as soon as the shooting took place and held him until he arrived in this city and turned him over to officers Strade and Ballard when the train arrived in this city. Both were colored. Doty lived at Lancaster and Bryant at Stanford. Officer Ballard took Doty to Paris Monday morning.

IS KILLED BY ELECTRIC WIRE

John H. Hockman, Democratic Candidate For Common Pleas Court, Drops Dead at Ohio Home.

DEFIANCE, Ohio, Oct. 15.—John H. Hockman, Democratic candidate for Common Pleas Judge in this district, fell dead at his home in North Defiance Friday night.

The cause of death is uncertain. It may have been heart failure, or electrocution from an electric wire, as the tips of his fingers were burned. He had gone into a bathroom to shave, and it is the belief that, in turning on an electric light and water at the same time, he received a shock from the light to the water spigot, dying instantly. Apparently he had been in the best of health.

Mr. Hockman was born in Defiance county in June, 1865. He was graduated from Ohio Northern University. He practiced law in Defiance, and in 1896 was elected Probate Judge. June 18, 1910, he was nominated for the Democratic Common Pleas Judgeship.

MADE MOONSHINE TO SECURE EDUCATION

Young Mountain Boy Wanted to Finish School and His Chance in Life For Success.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 15.—Fired by the desire to secure an education, D. W. Zey, an 18-year-old mountain boy, of Dawson, Ga., started to make "moonshine" liquor in order to secure the necessary funds and soon fell into the hands of revenue officers. In the Federal Court Friday he told this story:

"I wanted to finish school and have a chance in life. I didn't have any money. I'd been teaching, but couldn't find a school this summer. The crops were all planted and I couldn't get any farm work to do. I was offered 20 cents a gallon to make moonshine whisky and I took it, because I wanted to go back to school."

Advising the boy to go back home and make his money some other way, Judge William Neaman suspended sentence.

EPOCH MAKING TRIP TO EUROPE

Walter Wellman With Crew of Five Men, is Sailing Along New York Coast.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 17.—Sailing into a thick fog that hung low over the Atlantic ocean Saturday, Walter Wellman, with a crew of five men, is believed to be on an epoch-making voyage to Europe in a huge, cigar-shaped airship, the American.

Starting from the beach a few minutes after 8 o'clock the big craft was soon out of sight of the cheering crowd. Since then no one with the possible exception of ships at sea, has seen the strange craft and only word from her came by means of wireless. Numerous messages were received during the day and the latest indicated that Wellman is easily sailing along the New York coast.

GERMAN HEIRESS CHOOSES HUSBAND

Newspaper Advertisement Brought Forward Henry Oliver Brown, Building Wrecker By Profession.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Miss Eugenie Adams, the German girl, who in order to inherit a fortune left by her uncle in Germany, had to marry within a week after being notified she was an heiress, has chosen her husband. A newspaper advertisement brought her the man in three days. Miss Adams offered $200 to any man who would wed her and then go this way. Suitors came by the hundreds, and Friday Miss Adams selected Henry Oliver Brown, 34 years old, a native of Warren county, Penn., a building wrecker by profession and left wrecker by confession.

Accompanied by a woman reporter Eugenie sat in an office and the 10 selected suitors were allowed to enter, one at a time. Having drawn for precedence, Brown went first. Eugenie looked over all the others and then sent for Brown. A sailor in costume was a close second.

There were tears rolling down the bride's cheeks when she said: "I'm so glad it's settled. I'm going to have a husband after all, and I will get the money left me by my uncle in Germany. That's what I want."

"Aw, I'm not going to bother her," put in Brown. "I'll swear I'll beat it when the ceremony is over. Honest I will. I'm doing it for the money."

The bride and groom were taken to a lawyer's office to have "the parting-at-the-altar" contract drawn up in legal form.

SEN. DOLLIVER DIES SUDDENLY

Osteopathic Physician Unexpectedly Discovers That He Could No Longer Hear Heart Beats.

FT. DODGE, Ia., Oct. 17.—United States Senator Jonathan Prentiss Dolliver died of dilation of the heart caused by an attack of acute indigestion at his residence at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night while being rubbed by an osteopathic physician. Senator Dolliver's sudden demise was wholly unexpected by his relatives and close friends who thought he had almost entirely recovered from an attack of indigestion with which he had been suffering for a week.

Senator Dolliver had been up all day and had made the trip from his residence down town. He told several of the men whom he met that he believed he had completely recovered from his indisposition which followed his trip through Wisconsin on a speech making tour for Senator La Follette.

While working over Senator Dolliver the osteopath physician was using an instrument to listen to the Senator's heart action. The physician unexpectedly discovered that he was no longer hearing the heart beats. He at first thought the instrument was faulty. Examination revealed that the patient was dead.

STANLEY KETCHELL DIES OF WOUNDS

Champion Middleweight Pugilist of the World is Killed By Walter Hurtz, a Farm Hand.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 17.—Stanley Ketchell, champion middleweight pugilist of the world, died here Saturday night at 7:05 o'clock, as a result of being shot by Walter A. Hurtz, a ranch hand.

The shooting took place on the ranch of R. P. Dickerson, a friend of Ketchell, near Conway, 40 miles east of here. An hour before he died Ketchell regained consciousness. His condition soon took a decided change for the worse, however, and he died quickly. The pugilist died in a Springfield hospital, where he had been rushed after arriving here from Conway on a special train, chartered by Dickerson.

Three physicians were on the special. An operation was performed at the ranch house in the attempt to locate the bullet. It was not found. A report from Conway has it that a 22 calibre rifle bullet, the same pattern as that which inflicted Ketchell's wound, was found on the floor of the room in which the shooting took place. Out in the wooded hills, Hurtz, Ketchell's slayer, is fleeing before a pack of bloodhounds and a posse of officers and citizens. Dickerson has placed a price of $5,000 on the body of Hurtz. The members of the posse are armed with repeating rifles. Hurtz is believed to be a desperate man and none intend to take any chances on asking him to surrender. He will be fired upon on sight. Hurtz will battle for his life, if he shoots at all, with the revolver of his victim.

After shooting Ketchell, who was at the breakfast table when he was shot, Hurtz rushed from the house into the yard. He then faltered a moment, turned and went back into the room where Ketchell lay upon the floor.

Reaching into Ketchell's pocket he removed the pugilist's 38-calibre revolver and struck him on the head with it, then he ran from the house. Investigation of Hurtz's belongings has led the officers to believe his real name is Walter Dingley and that he is from Webb City, Mo.

The trouble between Ketchell and Hurtz is said to have started Friday when the pugilist upbraided the ranch hand for beating a horse. This angered Hurtz. Ketchell had just come down to the ranch, which adjoins one he recently purchased, to spend a few days.

Hurtz thought Ketchell was going beyond the province of a visitor to take him to task for his abuse of the animal. It was Ketchell's custom, while staying at the ranch house, to eat at the table with his face toward the door leading into the house, the lining room being built in an old porch.

Saturday morning Hurtz entered carrying a rifle and said to Ketchell: "Throw up your hands." Ketchell, not realizing the seriousness of the situation, smiled and started to rise and walk toward Hurtz. Before he turned completely around Hurtz fired.

VICTORY FOR ROXA KOLAS

Home Boys Win From Georgetown Base Ball Team By Score of 2 to 1 on Sunday Afternoon.

The Roxa Kolas defeated the Georgetown base ball team Sunday afternoon by the score of 2 to 1.

The game was a battle between Edwards for Roxa Kola and Lynn for Georgetown, most of the way through, with Lynn receiving the better half of the argument until the last half of the ninth he weakened and the two winning runs were put over the rubber.

The Roxa Kolas' fielding outfit worked badly at times, especially at the opening of the innings and the first man up invariably succeeded in getting on first base which made it necessary for Edwards to pull out of several tight holes.

In only one inning, however, did this prove disastrous. This was the fifth inning and it all started with clean hits. In this inning Craycraft followed with another and so did Portley. Craycraft tried to score on Portley's hit but Crane fielded the ball fast to Marmalott and caught him at home. Carriek hit to Crane and would have been the third out but Prewitt lost his head and ran off of first and Carriek, who should have been an easy out, was safe and Barkley scored.

After this session the Roxa Kolas tightened up and the visitors never reached the second station again. The Roxa Kolas were unable to hit Lynn in succession until the ninth when they turned apparent defeat into victory.

Watson, the first up, doubled to center. Shea followed with a single to left, Watson taking third. Edwards then hit a sacrifice fly to center and Watson made a dash for home and was easily safe, but Lynn and Craycraft began an argument with the umpire and while this was going on, Shea scored the winning run.

The features of the game was the pitching of Edwards, the fielding of Shea, Lindsey, Abbott and Sable and the batting of Craycraft, Barkley, Carriek, Crane, Watson and Shea.

MUSICAL TREAT FOR WINCHESTER

Provided Sufficient Number of Tickets Are Sold, Famous Pianist and Soprano Soloist Will Appear Here.

Provided a sufficient number of tickets are sold in advance, William H. Sherwood, America's greatest pianist, and Virginia Listemann, the great prima donna soprano, will appear in a joint recital at Kentucky Wesleyan College on Thursday evening, October 27, 1910. Mr. Sherwood will also give a lecture recital at the college at 3:30 p. m. on "The Educational Value of Music." Those purchasing tickets for evening recital will be admitted free to the afternoon lecture recital. The afternoon recital will be especially helpful to students and pupils of music.

There is no better known American pianist than Mr. Sherwood. His name is a household word among music teachers and music lovers throughout the length and breadth of this entire country.

Mr. Sherwood, more than any other musician, has stood for American music for the American people. Through his teaching he has raised the standard of music instruction, and through his playing he has demonstrated that American artists are just as good as those from the charmed circles of Europe.

Mr. Sherwood's tour for the season of 1910-1911 is perhaps the most extensive he has ever taken. It will give more of his admirers an opportunity to hear him than ever before. Mr. Sherwood is at his very best at this period of his life; putting into his work the finished technique of thirty years' practice, and into his interpretation the refined study and experiences of a lifetime. Every musician should make it a point to hear him.

Mr. Sherwood is a painter of musical ideas. He has a genius for tone color. His greatest charm lies in his interpretation. Not only does he interpret, he creates, and is especially effective in the composition that he will play on this tour.

He is assisted by Miss Virginia Listemann, a soprano with a beautifully clear, resonant quality of tone and a charming personality.

The management of this tour is in the hands of Mr. J. Saunders Gordon, who has most successfully managed tours for Emma Calve, Madame Blanche Marchesi, Madame Butterfly Company, Leoncavallo, La Scala Orchestra, The Gordon Grand Opera Company, etc.

The admission will be $1.00. Fifty cents for all children, music pupils and students.

THE PASSING OF LEBUS.

"De mortuis nil nisi bonum."

We were inclined to exult when we first heard of the downfall of Lebus. In fact, we asked a friend to write us a story of "The Morgue," meaning Lexington, the burial place of enterprises which while prosperous in Winchester died soon after their removal to "Hessville."

But when we remembered the millions of dollars worth of 1909 tobacco still tied up in last year's pool and the share of Clark citizens in that stake, we decided to say as little as possible. All patriotic citizens should lend at least their interest and sympathy to prevent the American Tobacco Company from robbing the growers on the tobacco in the pool.

The pool idea is not dead. It is unfortunate that Lebus became its champion. It renders conservative men suspicious of "oolie." But the formation of a stronger and greater pool among white burley growers depends absolutely on the American Tobacco Company. If the trust continues to pay fair living prices for tobacco all well and good. If it returns to the tactics of a few years ago, nothing can prevent a new pool.

We were inclined to be disappointed with the result of the meeting of tobacco growers on Saturday. We had hoped to see the formation of a Clark county independent pool. But in the light of the results of Saturday night the action in calling a growers' conference at Winchester on Tuesday week is probably the best possible step which could be taken.

The first moves are riding the Blue Grass counties paying 12 cents and over for tobacco. If these prices still obtain, no further move is necessary. If old tactics are pursued, we will form a new pool on next Tuesday.

NATIONAL BOTTLERS'
ASSOCIATION MEETS

Mr. G. Lee Wainscott, Representative of Kentucky, is Honored by Members at Convention.

Mr. G. L. Wainscott, manager of the Roca Kola plant in this city returned from Philadelphia Saturday night where he has been as a delegate from Kentucky to the convention of the National Bottlers' Protective Association.

Mr. Wainscott was the only representative from this State at the convention, having been appointed the delegate at the Kentucky bottlers' meeting in Louisville in August. The State Association could have found no better representative, as Mr. Wainscott soon became a prominent figure at the convention at Philadelphia and was styled the "Kentucky Baby," this being the first time Kentucky has been represented at the National meeting. The first honor bestowed upon him was being made secretary of the nominating committee. Later he was made a member of the executive committee and by the virtue of this office he becomes a director of the American Bottler, a paper published for the benefit of the bottlers all over the country.

About three thousand people attended this convention and were royally entertained by the people of Philadelphia.

OUT OF COMMISSION

Changes Are Made in Gas Lines Which Supply the Engine at Power Plant.

The street car which is operated on the Blue Grass Traction Company's line in this city was stopped Sunday in order that changes in the gas lines which supply the large engine at the power plant might be made. The line which was a low pressure one, was changed to a high pressure in order that the supply would not be cut short when the weather became cooler. The work was completed late Sunday night and the car was started again Monday morning.

THE MAKING OF AN ICEBERG.

Huge Sheets of Ice a Mile Thick in Places Slide Down to the Sea, and as the Ends Become Too Heavy They Break Off and Form Bergs.

At any time of the year ice may be encountered in the Atlantic north of the fortieth parallel of latitude, approximately that of New York, and between 42 and 55 degrees west longitude, but it is in spring, when the increasing warmth of the sun loosens the arctic floes and causes the bergs to melt and float from the places where they have been stranded, that there is the greatest danger to the mariner.

The bergs have their origin almost exclusively in western Greenland, although a few may come around Cape Farewell from the Spitzbergen sea and some from Hudson bay.

A huge sheet of ice a mile thick in places covers the whole of Greenland. This gradually slides down the valley toward the sea, into which it is thrust in great sheets fifty miles wide. As these ends become too heavy they break off and become bergs. The process is known as "calving." The pieces set adrift thus may be a thousand feet out of the water and a mile square, but as they drift about they become broken and continue to diminish in size until they finally disappear completely. The process sometimes takes several years.

Once set adrift icebergs find their way into the Labrador current and begin their journey. But of all bergs so set adrift only a very small proportion ever find their way into the path of the transatlantic steamships.

Nor do all bergs take the same course. Some go south; others lodge against the shore or against islands. Two years may separate the time that two bergs reach a low latitude, though they were "calved" at the same moment.

Field ice also offers an obstruction to the icebergs, though by their great size and bulk they often act as plows and aid materially in breaking up the ice fields which obstruct the arctic basin.

Ice fields are more affected by the wind than are icebergs. Bergs generally drift with the current, so that one sometimes is seen moving into the wind.

Advantage is taken of this by the sealing and fishing boats when caught in an ice field. They often moor to an iceberg and are towed miles through the ice, through which otherwise they could make no headway. This is accomplished by sinking an anchor into the berg and using a strong towline. As the berg advances open water, with small floating ice, is left astern.

But this is indeed a dangerous thing to do. All ice is brittle, but especially icebergs. A blow of an ax has been known to split one, while the report of a gun at times will accomplish the same end. In July and August, when the bergs are breaking up along the coast of Labrador, the noise at times is deafening, and the noise of one often causes another to break up.

From their very nature icebergs assume an endless variety of shapes. Some resemble geometrical figures, while others carry fantastic domes, spires and minarets. Sometimes they appear to be veritable ice bridges, with two separate supports. In many there are great caves and indentations. As they drift south and begin melting cascades of water pour down their sides or run from the tips of the hundreds of iceles which depend from every ledge.

Frequently there are outlying spurs in the water, as dangerous to ships as submerged reefs. For this reason vessels should always give them a wide berth, half a mile being considered the nearest that one may be approached with safety.

Several years ago the British steamship Nessmore ran into an iceberg and stove in her bows. When she was docked a scratch was found next the keel the full length of the ship, the plates being almost cut through. The ship evidently struck a submerged spur. The government report says:

"It is generally best for ships to go to windward of them, because disintegrated fragments have a tendency to drift to leeward, while open water will be found to windward."

So nicely are icebergs balanced in the water that the slightest melting sometimes will cause the center of gravity to shift, and the entire berg will capsize or founder. Thus many ships have been wrecked.

Field ice is formed throughout the waters within the arctic circle south as far as Newfoundland, and each year vast floes leave the shores and drift south into the paths of commerce. The arctic ice often has lived through several seasons in the far north and occasionally is ten to fifteen and sometimes twenty feet thick. Because of its continual motion, due to currents, wind, etc., gradually it becomes broken up. Swells from storms in the open seas cause it to raft or pile one on another—in the arctic every piece of field ice is a pan—until it is covered with hummocks.

Ice also becomes rafted by the grinding of a free field against another frozen to the shore or by the grinding of two fields against each other when one is given a turning motion by contrary wind and tide. This rotary motion, it is said, is particularly dangerous to ships that get caught between fields.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

LOSE BY SCORE OF 42 TO 0

Wesleyan Suffers the Worst Defeat Saturday in the History of its Long Existence.

Saturday was a bad day for Kentucky Wesleyan and they suffered a defeat at the hands of State University by a score of 42 to 0, the worst that has ever happened in its long history.

In the first quarter State used its first team against Wesleyan and during the first few minutes of play succeeded in making the first touchdown.

In this quarter two touchdowns were made by the visiting team. Wesleyan held the ball only a few times and lost it on kicks in order to get it away from goal.

Under the new rules a team has the right to change any or all of its players during the game and when the second quarter was called State's second team took their positions on the field and the first team stayed out.

Their second team is almost as strong as their first and they went at the Wesleyan line with as much fury as did the first, with the result that they made two goals. Wesleyan towards the end of this quarter received the ball and had almost succeeded in pushing it over the goal line when the whistle called the quarter. This was the only time it seemed they would score.

In the third quarter the second team of State made one touchdown and one field goal. The first team after being thoroughly rested were put in again in the fourth quarter and made two more touchdowns.

Wesleyan was simply outclassed in every point. The State team will average about 50 pounds more to the man and have been in constant training since their school opened. Wesleyan also had some of their best players out on account of injuries. Lane was the only one who seemed able to cope with the visitors and he was sused most of the time and made good gains on end runs.

Two hundred State students came over on a special L. & E. train to witness the game. They held sway at the park and urged their favorites on with their college yells.

Following is the line-up of the Wesleyan team:

The officials were—Dr. McKinley, of the University of Virginia, referee; Ogden, Wesleyan umpire; McClure, Winchester, head lineman.

ONE HUNDRED SCHOOL DESKS

Lanier Superintendent, will be in the county visiting the schools all this week which will make it necessary for the trustees to wait until Saturday before installing the desks.

Mrs. Carl Robbins has returned from a visit to her mother, Mrs. J. W. Bramlette, in Paris.

Mr. W. P. Hieatt left Monday morning for Louisville to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge.

AN ORDINANCE

Whereas, a public system is now being constructed in the city of Winchester, Ky., and persons will be entitled to let, and it appearing that such persons can be made at less expense than the city, and while the main line is being constructed, unless such connection is made the public will be disappointed and the city put to considerable expense by reason of the street torn up.

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the Board of Council of the City of Winchester, Ky., that all firms or corporations owning property along the line of said sewer and they are hereby required to make connection as soon as it is laid and before the same is covered, along their respective lines, by laying a pipe line from point of connection to the side walk, and they are required to make said connection under supervision and at the direction of the City Engineer.

Any person, firm or corporation who shall fail to comply with the requirements of this ordinance shall be fined the sum of $5.00 for each offense and each 24 hours that failure exists shall be deemed a separate offense.

QUININE DOESN'T CURE BAD COLDS

How to Really Break a Severe Cold and End All Grippe Misery in Just a Few Hours.

You will distinctly feel your cold breaking and all the Grippe symptoms leaving after taking the very first dose.

It is a positive fact that Pape's Cold Compound, taken every two hours, until three consecutive doses are taken, will end the Grippe and break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.

It promptly relieves the most miserable neuralgia pains, headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

Take this harmless compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

MARKETS

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—WHEAT—Wheat shorts covered again at the close yesterday. Whatever snap there was on the buying side on the swells Friday was due either to covering by shorts or an effort by a group of pit traders to work for a temporary rally because of the generally oversold trade. There is in the local trade a feeling of caution about pressing, the selling side on breaks and this is the very thing which has kept most people who were bearish and right in their opinions from making much money on the decline of the past thirty days. It may be a little better support is due as the price works lower, but there is not change enough in the underlying conditions to suggest anything but the selling side on the good swells.

CORN—On any good swell we ask our followers to be ready to take the selling side for a lower level than yet recorded.

PROVISIONS—Gelt says 7,000 hogs against 8,000 estimated and 7,000 last year. Shorts led the buying yesterday. As prices advanced there was some improvement in the outside business and mostly on the buying side in the way of an improvement. The hog movement will be watched now as the action of the market will be governed by it.
